

ACCEPTANCE CREDIT

Acceptance Credit is a documentary credit which requires the beneficiary to draw a usance bill for subsequent acceptance by the issuing bank or the advising bank or any other bank as the credit stipulates. With such an accepted draft the beneficiary can easily raise finance by discounting the bill. FEE bank can discount the draft accordingly.