

PRODUCE LOAN FOR IMPORTERS

It is applicable for a short term process. The supplier will be paid when the draft or the letter of credit are due and the term will usually be between at sight to 180 days which would cover the average stock-holding period for the individual customers. This loan is secured against a charge on the assets of the company or bank guarantees.